5. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Discussed with Miss Nettie C. Bishop, secretary to Congressman Frank C. Canine (R., N. J.), the Congressman's letter of 24 January 1964 concerning a Reserve Air Force Officer and observation in American defense plants. Miss Bishop thanked me for stopping by and indicated that they would refer the matter to the FBI.

6. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Discussed with Miss Judith Quattlebaum, Congressman William E. Minshall's (R., Ohio) office, a constituent request for CIA reports on Soviet activities in Latin America and the Middle East. Miss Quattlebaum indicated that she would respond that such reports are classified and not available for distribution. No written response to the Congressman's letter of 23 January 1964 is necessary.

7. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Advised by Mr. John Martin, Assistant Chief Counsel, House Ways and Means, that the Chairman is out of town during the week. Committee meeting to establish a schedule for consideration of legislation may be forthcoming during next week, but no date has been established as of today.
